

Aflac: Personal freedom and unlimited earning potential

Identical twins Jack and John lead different lives. John works a typical, 40-hour-per-week salaried job. Jack, an Aflac benefits advisor earning 100% commission, has the freedom to work where he wants, when he wants.

Jack works on 100% commission as an independent Aflac Benefits Advisor.

Receives commissions for each policy he sells, as long as it remains active and premiums are paid.*

Plus, unlike some other companies, the renewal-commission rate Aflac pays doesn't decrease over time.

Works where and when he wants, securing a minimum of two accounts each month.

Arranges his flexible schedule to golf every Friday.

Always has cash on hand, since Aflac's Advance System provides him a portion of his monthly commission upfront.

Feels secure knowing Aflac will continue to pay associate renewal commissions even if he is no longer actively selling, based on vesting and contract agreement.

Commutes in heavy traffic to a 9-to-5 job.

Marks the days until the rare three-day holiday weekend.

Juggles his finances for his biweekly paycheck.
