

Master of Education Higher Education Administration and Policy 2018-2019

Coursework: 36 units are required. The majority of courses are offered in the Graduate School of Education and focus on higher education, but program plans may substitute up to 12 units of relevant graduate level courses offered in GSOE and other departments.

Required Course

EDUC 248T: Understanding Research in Higher Education

Elective Courses:

Students must take at least eight courses (32 units) from:

EDUC 248E: Demographics and Diversity in Higher Education

EDUC 248F: Financing Higher Education

EDUC 248G: Higher Education Governance

EDUC 248I: Critical Issues in Higher Education

EDUC 248J: Higher Education Policy

EDUC 248M: The Community College

EDUC 248N: Higher Education Scholarship and Literature Review

EDUC 248O: Organization and Administration in Higher Education

EDUC 248P: Historical Perspectives on Campus Life

EDUC 248Q: Foundations of Student Services

EDUC 248R: College Student Development

EDUC 248S: The College Student

EDUC 248U: History of Higher Education in the United States

Analytical Report

After students complete their coursework they will complete a case study report that integrates content from higher education courses with practice. A final version is submitted to the Higher Education faculty committee in the Graduate School of Education for review and approval.