

THE WORLD HIGHER EDUCATION DATABASE

While information on higher education systems and credentials in 196 countries and territories is open access on the WHED portal, different subscription offers are available and provide IAU Members with special features to boost their visibility and make most use of WHED's up-to-date and official data on some 19,400 accredited higher education institutions. Other higher education stakeholders, such as organizations, governing bodies and individuals, can benefit from a dedicated subscription offer.
