

Interview Questions for a Married Couple

- Share some of the history of your marriage—where you met, how you became engaged, and so on.
- Look back on some of the expectations you had before your marriage. How have they changed now?
- Talk about some of the responsibilities or changes you might not have been ready for and how you coped with them.
- Share some of the difficult times—be as open as you are comfortable with. How did these times affect your relationship with God and with each other?
- Share some of the blessings you have received. How have they brought you together?
- Talk about marriage as something that needs to be continually nurtured and allowed to grow.
- What are some of the things you do to keep your relationship growing?
- What special role has your faith in God played in your marriage?