

Water Wise Woodlands presents...

CARING FOR YOUR WOODS
PANCAKE BREAKFAST

Learn about the woods, wildlife, and water with hands on activities.

Kids activities and door prizes!

Saturday March 30, 2019

9am – 1pm

Twinfield Union School, Marshfield, VT

Agenda

9am -10am

Free Pancake breakfast and concurrent Open house:

- Friends of the Winooski Stream Table demonstration
- EAB and Invasive Species information, Backyard Wood Program information
- VT Woodlands Association table
- Wood Heat Energy Information
- Natural Resources Conservation Service information

10am-11:15am

Presentation with concurrent kids activities:

- Introduction to Forest Ecology, Dan Singleton, Washington County Forester
- Benefits of retaining forested headwaters for flood resilience and water quality, Rose Paul, Nature Conservancy
- What the woodland property owner can do and basic steps of woodland planning, Dave Wilcox, Watershed Forester, VT Department of Forests, Parks and Recreation
- Announce door prize winners
- Concurrent Kids Activities (taking place in adjacent room):
  - Build a bird house
  - Project Learning Tree activities

11:30am – 1pm

Concurrent workshops:

- Mapping your land, Dan Singleton, Washington County Forester
Learn the first steps in developing a forest stewardship or management plan. Using ANR's Natural Resource Atlas participants will learn how to use the online mapping tool and will have the ability to print out a map of their property.
- Tree pruning, led by Dave Wilcox, Watershed Forester, VT Department of Forests, Parks and Recreation
- Tree Identification Walk, led by members of the Marshfield Conservation Commission
- Concurrent Kids Activities

To register visit: centralvtplanning.org