They can also help focus customers attention on central product features.

Window Stickers

Snowflakes will work for any style of window

Simply scatter them or use them as a border, you could giant ones just in the corner of your window

Window Stickers

The scale and the style of these decals really gives the windows impact

Window Stickers

Here are other great examples of seasonal greetings.

Find all these at Purlees

Window Stickers

These contemporary frosted shapes are actually a mixture of stickers on the glass and acrylic hung decorations.

By hanging some decorations inside the window you create depth.

The SHINE wording adds a contemporary twist.

Window Stickers

This quirky tree window sticker could easily be made up of lots of individual photos or printed as one big sticker

The photos could be of all your Christmas products

Hanging Decorations

Crystals

These strings of glass beads have been hung from the ceiling.

Either cover the whole window as they have done here or simply add just one row of beads at the back of the window as shown in the next slide

Find similar at DZD
www.dzd.co.uk

Hanging Decorations

This scheme mixes mirror balls with chrome spheres to create a stunning effect
This would work equally well with just the mirror balls

Glitter balls available from DZD

Hanging Decorations

Oversized decorations can look stunning, and you don't have to use many of them
You can buy similar oversized decorations from DZD (contact details at end of presentation)

Hanging Decorations

Using one type of decoration can be very effective especially when grouped or repeated

Hanging Decorations

These oversized decorations look great, the important thing to note here is the use of colour and positioning. Keeping to a simple colour theme really works and looks sophisticated.

Hanging Decorations

This scheme uses an old style decoration but in a contemporary way
Keep to one colour theme and use oversize decorations or groups of small ones
A great selection of paper decorations are available from Pearl and Earl

Hanging Decorations

This is a simple sophisticated scheme
Using oversized baubles in one colour
Simply add ribbon to each one and then group them together and hang

Quirky Decorations

This scheme uses pieces of tin foil cut into strips and hung on wire or nylon thread. Simple and stunning

Quirky Decorations

This is another example of using a simple item this time it's florists pull ribbons covering the whole wall and keeping to one colour adds drama

This would work equally well on a free standing screen or a hanging panel

Quirky Decorations

This is a great example of using a simple oversized item e.g. Polystyrene snowflake (available from DZD) and adding products to it to create a really quirky look

The bold red backgrounds helps to give it a Christmas flavour and strong standout

Quirky Decorations

These quirky reindeer and sledge designs have been cut out of cardboard, you could have a go at designing your own quirky decorations

The backdrop is simple silver cards squares with lots of flat clear gems stuck on them to give that added sparkle

Quirky Decorations

This tree is made out of a pot stand & kitchen colanders and other items. You can buy simple tree frames from DZD and add almost any products to them.

Christmas Foliage

Christmas Foliage

Using a real tree is so effective and will give your store a lovely aroma

To give a modern clean look use white lights
Create foliage snow balls using branches of the tree

Christmas Foliage

Branches and twigs have been used for years but are so effective and give a strong bold statement.

It's the volume of the twigs and branches that makes this work.

You could also use them to frame the window.

These fir trees are real so they can be reused

The pots are covered in cloth and tied with ribbon

Simple and stunning

Christmas Foliage

Number Ten - After

A real tree, cut logs, snowflake stickers & baubles attached to garden twine have been to create this window.
Note the wording on the window which gives a quirky christmas message to the customer.

Christmas Foliage

This scheme uses a garland framing the window. Ribbons are hung with with decorations tied to them. It's effective as they have grouped the ribbons together to create a mass of ribbons and decorations

Arts and Crafts Windows

Arts and Crafts Windows

This simple yet effective scheme uses hand made paper snowflakes. Some are stuck to the glass and some are hung. They have also added some small products.

Arts and Crafts Windows

This scheme is more not as complicated as it looks. Simply suspend cord or string from your ceiling to your floor securing it at the top and bottom. Then add as many random Christmas decorations as you can, start in one place and build it up until you are satisfied with the result, it just takes time and patience but the effect can be stunning.

Arts and Crafts Windows

I love the way the same company has then used the bauble shape to add their Christmas opening hours to their windows

Arts and Crafts Windows

- Paper chains have been around for years
- Here they have been made from newspaper
- Snowflakes have been added to the glass

Arts and Crafts Windows

This gift box window has an arts and crafts feel to it with the use of brown paper and cord being used as ribbon and bows.

Notice how they have spray painted their logo onto the boxes.

Arts and Crafts Windows

This doily scheme is very effective

- Paint your back wall a strong colour
- Stick the doilies to the window and to your back wall
- The snow is made from cotton wool balls strung onto nylon threads

Arts and Crafts Windows

Here old books have been folding into christmas tree shapes and hung in the window.

Opposite they have been folded and made into a hanging sculpture.
