Distribute or assign appropriate clerical work to lower level staff; provide instruction and guidance and review work completed by clerical personnel.

Perform related duties as assigned.

CLASS CONCEPTS

Legal Office Manager: Under direction, incumbents are responsible for general office services of a legal office. Assignments vary considerably and require the selection of different and often unrelated processes or procedures, depending upon highly variable circumstances of individual cases or situations. The incumbent must interpret and apply information to specific situations and problems for which there may be no clear-cut procedures, guidelines or precedent. Solutions to problems frequently require independent research, factual comparisons, and the examination of detailed information.

Oversee the overall operation of one or more legal offices; manage support staff which must include a Supervising Legal Secretary; assist with budget preparation and monitoring; develop and implement standard operational procedures; and review requests for purchase orders for need and form accuracy; assist the Accounting Division with annual inventory; responsible for ongoing inventory disposal, transfers and excessing.

Provide administrative support to professional staff including acting as an executive assistant; overseeing special projects; gathering information and preparing program related reports and statistics; and performing legal secretarial duties as assigned.

Supervising Legal Secretary: Under general supervision, incumbents perform the full range of duties outlined in the series concept and supervise multiple positions including two or more Legal Secretary II's. Incumbents at this level have full supervisory responsibility for assigned staff, oversee the flow of work, provide technical assistance in the preparation of documents, and act as liaison between professional and clerical staff.

Supervising Legal Secretaries may be assigned to perform the more difficult or complex legal secretarial duties for the work unit. In addition, they compile unit statistics, provide training, prepare reports, may have limited responsibility for monitoring office supplies, and arrange for archiving and storage of legal documents.

Legal Secretary II: Under general supervision, incumbents perform the full range of duties outlined in the series concept at the journey level. Decisions regarding what needs to be done involve evaluation of an issue or issues and may require selecting a course of action from several alternatives. The work involves conditions and elements that must be identified, analyzed, or evaluated to discern interrelationships. Guidelines are available and are applicable to major portions of the work, but leave gaps in specificity. Incumbents use judgment in interpreting and applying guidelines for application to specific cases or problems.

Legal Secretary I: Under direct supervision, incumbents perform the duties outlined in the series concept in a continuing trainee capacity. Progression to the journey level may occur upon meeting the minimum qualifications, satisfactory job performance and with approval of the appointing authority.

Legal Secretary Trainee: Under immediate supervision, incumbents acquire skills and experience in performing the duties outlined in the series concept. This is the entry level in the series, and progression to the continuing trainee level may occur upon meeting the minimum qualifications, satisfactory job performance and with approval of the appointing authority.
