Join the Lentil Underground

Patagonia Outlet

Thursday, November 14th

Mark your calendars - celebrate lentils with us! We're teaming up with David Oien, the founding farmer of Timeless Foods of Ulm, MT and Claudia Krevat - a lentil inspired chef from Bozeman. You'll be treated to Timeless Food's brand new Black Beluga Lentil Beer and lentil filled treats made by Chef Claudia out of Savory Seeds and Green Lentil Soup from the Patagonia Provisions line. After we're full on the lentil goodness, David will tell us about how he started Timeless in 1987 with four farmers who were determined to revolutionize Northern Great Plains farming with a solution for fallow fields by using cover crops to reduce erosion, build soil health, provide natural nitrogen fertilizer, and create a new source of income for Montana farmers.

Treats served at 6:30pm, presentation at 7pm.

This is going to be a good one, we'll see ya here!

Western Fall Classic

The Western Fall Classic basketball tournament will be held on December 14-15, 2019. The tournament is for boys and girls, currently in grades 3-8. There is a 4 game guarantee and MOA officials will work the tournament.

Civically Engaged College Students Recognized with Volunteer Award

The Montana Student Volunteer Award, previously known as the Volunteer of the Game Award, is awarded in partnership between the Governor's Office of Community Service and Montana Campus Compact campuses to college students across the state who have demonstrated service to their communities while pursuing a college degree or certificate.

"This incredible group of students is certainly deserving of our recognition as they take the time and commitment to be a force of good in their communities," Governor Bullock said. "I commend these students for what is likely the start of a lifelong commitment to service and encourage others to follow their example."

This year, 13 student volunteers across Montana will be recognized at a campus event or home sporting event and presented with a certificate signed by Governor Bullock and their college president. Brock Doty, the recipient from the University of Montana Western, will be presented with his award certificate during halftime of the Bulldog football game on November 16 in Dillon, Mont.

2019 Montana Student Volunteer Award Winners:

- The University of Montana Western | Brock C. Doty is a key campus volunteer and mentor for new students. He is a member of the Student Senate and volunteers for the incentive program – "Paw Prints for Success." He spends time advocating for Montana Western's "Home for the Holidays" and Experience One programs. Brock has been instrumental in leading new student orientation and preparing freshmen for a successful start at Montana Western.
- Blackfeet Community College | James Clarendon Watts III is the Student Senate and AIBL (American Indian Business Leaders) President. He is involved in AISES (American Indian Science and Engineering Society) and an active contributor to his tribal and campus communities. James sets an example of professional leadership for his fellow students.
- Carroll College | Brett Rotz is a senior and president of Carroll's Engineers Without Borders (EWB). He has volunteered with EWB since his freshman year, providing clean drinking water in Uganda, building safe structures in Guatemala, and other global service projects. Brett is also an active member of "Christ in the City" (CIC) and Carroll's Campus Ministry Headlights Immersion trips, serving low income people in Denver and Philadelphia over the past several years.

- Dawson Community College | Riley Caudle is a sophomore actively involved in serving fellow students and community. He is a volunteer freshman softball coach, prepares and serves food at school and community events, and helps new students move into the dorms. Riley volunteers for the college's semi-annual blood drives and is always willing to help members of the community move when they need assistance. He also serves as an RA and student worker in the Physical Plant Department.
- Fort Peck Community College | Cal Christian is a member of the Student Senate and is actively involved in cultural activities on the Fort Peck Reservation. He is an advocate for tribal students with the ability to build cross-cultural relationships. Cal was a participant at the annual Tribal College and University Capitol Hill visits in Washington, D.C. There he met with state representatives and senators to advocate for funding. He is considered the "go to" student on campus for positions of leadership and service.
- Great Falls College Montana State University | Charmaine Engum is President of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society. She leads Service Saturday and organizes campus blood drives. As the Associated Students Treasurer, she collaborates to provide Thanksgiving meals for low-income students and volunteers for the campus food pantry weekly. During "Stop the Stigma Week," Charmaine advocates for addiction and mental health awareness.
- Helena College University of Montana | Courtney Radke is a dedicated Student Ambassador, studying to become a Registered Nurse. She devotes time volunteering weekly in the Tinker Lab at Explorations Works and as a "book pal" for local elementary school students. She has volunteered at Festival of Trees, Special Olympics, and the Governor's Cup. Courtney served as a tutor with the Lewis and Clark Literacy Council and as a member of Montana Supporting Soldiers. She is a committed student and still finds time to give back to her school and community weekly.
- Miles Community College | Michael Quintana is a full-time nursing student and President of the Student Nursing Association. He volunteers as a coach for Montana's Special Olympics and Developmental Education Assistance Program. He served as Vice President of the Student Senate, is a member of Montana's Alliance of LGBTQ, and organizes service projects benefitting underprivileged families in his community.
- Montana State University Bozeman | Callista Schoettmer is an Engineering major, volunteering through MSU's Office of Student Engagement as the Service Saturday Coordinator. Callista recently lead a project called "Rockin the M," engaging 90 student volunteers in 340 hours of collective service. As a "Spring Break Breaks Away" leader, she led a group of nine students on a service project working on trails in New Mexico. She consistently shows compassion and willingness to step up and meet identified needs in her community.

- Montana State University Billings | Sari Robertus is the Student United Way President and develops volunteer and work-study projects around education, income, and health. She advocates to address food insecurity, mental health, housing, animal welfare, and the environment. Sari also volunteers as MSUB's Service Saturday Manager, connecting students, faculty, and staff with high impact service projects in the Billings community. She is a positive role model for fellow students, leading others through cooperation and inclusion.
- Montana State University Northern | Robert Pair III is a Civil Engineering major participating in multiple service activities, while balancing a full course load. He is Secretary for the Association of Student Athletes, a campus tour guide, Student Ambassador, and MSUN Rodeo volunteer. Robert reads to local elementary students, volunteers as a youth wrestling coach, and was awarded the 2019 Student Excellence Award and 2019 NAIA Academic All-American for wrestling.
- Montana Technological University | Zach Torgerson is a Campus Compact AmeriCorps service member and Oredigger football player. He serves over 300 hours a year with youth, assisting them with Science Club, reading skills, and even launching a suicide prevention program in Butte designed for 4th grade students. His ability to connect with students and inspire his peers to serve has distinguished him as a service member and leader at his university.
- Rocky Mountain College | Bailey Rheame is a senior majoring in Elementary Education. She is the Student Coordinator of Bear's Cupboard, an emergency food program she developed while serving as an AmeriCorps service member on campus. Passionate about literacy education, she serves in elementary school classrooms across Billings and advocates for access to higher education. Bailey uses her education to lead others into service.

Nominations for the Montana Student Volunteer Awards open the beginning of fall semester and close in early October. For information about individual award ceremonies, contact the college's Campus Compact advisory committee member or Josh Vanek (vanek@mtcompact.org) with Campus Compact.

The Governor's Office of Community Service expands and promotes national service and community volunteerism in Montana and engages citizens in service. For more information, please visit serve.mt.gov.

Center for Rural Economic Development

The University of Montana has a new resource – Accelerate Montana's Rural Innovation Initiative – to provide ideas to support high growth business across rural Montana. The University of Montana Western and the University of Montana are working together to bring awareness of these opportunities to southwest Montana.

You are invited to attend an informational meeting on Wednesday, November 13 at 3:00 p.m. at the Bank of Commerce second floor conference room at 110 S. Idaho St. in Dillon, Mont.

The University of Montana was recently awarded a $730,000 grant from the U.S. Economic Development Administration to help cultivate high-growth companies in rural areas through its Center for Rural Economic Development. For more information call Mike Reid, at 406-683-7031 or email michael.reid@umwestern.edu.

Missing Indigenous Persons Task Force Meets Friday in Great Falls

What: Missing Indigenous Persons Task Force Meeting

When: Friday, November 15 / 8:30 am - 4:00 pm

Where: Heritage Inn / Great Falls

Contact: Anastasia Burton, 444-9869, ABurton@mt.gov

Montana's Missing Indigenous Persons Task Force will meet for the fourth time Friday in Great Falls. Among other action items, DOJ's Missing Persons Specialist, Misty LaPlant, will update task force members on the scope of missing indigenous persons in Montana; Senator Jason Small will give an overview of the LINC Act; and LINC Coordinator Tina Chamberlain will brief attendees on the LINC tribal college solicitation. The meeting agenda is available here.

The legislature created the task force earlier this year with Senate Bill 312, or the Looping in Native Communities (LINC) Act. Senator Small of Busby, a member of the Northern Cheyenne Tribe, sponsored the bill.

48th Annual St. Rose Christmas Bazaar Invitation to Non-profit Vendors

Calling all non-profit organizations! You are invited to participate in the 48th Annual St. Rose Christmas Bazaar, which is a great opportunity to sell crafts, candies, baked goods, etc. If interested, please call Nancy Johnson at 683-2882 by November 22 to reserve a booth space, which will include a six-foot table for the first 12 organizations to sign up. The bazaar will be held on Saturday, December 7 from 9 am to 1 pm at the St. Rose Family Center. The booth fee is only $20.00 per organization. Don't hesitate! Booth spaces and tables are limited!

There's No Place Like Home

But we're a close second

When a loved one has had a stay in the hospital, they no doubt can't wait to get home. Sometimes, however, home is not always the best option. A patient may need a bit more recovery time or additional skills to be safe at home. That's where Transitional Care at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare comes in. Skilled medical professionals are available 24/7 to help with recovery. You or your loved one can enjoy the comforts of home in a private, spacious room, have visitors, and breathe easier with peace of mind that comes with a care team that's here for you. Even if the original stay was at another hospital, patients are welcome to receive Transitional Care here, closer to home. Recover in comfort and safety knowing that there's no place like home, but that Barrett Hospital & HealthCare is a close second.

Learn about Transitional Care at Barrett Hospital & HealthCare and see if it's right for you or a loved one by visiting www.barrethospital.org/transitional-care or calling 406-683-3140.

Financial Assistance

Notification

If you have active insurance coverage & your household earns 200% or less of the published federal poverty level you are eligible to apply for assistance with your Barrett Hospital & HealthCare bills. For details see below and contact Barrett Hospital & HealthCare.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare (BHH) offers financial assistance to those who apply, qualify, and submit all required documentation timely for the program. The financial assistance program is a payer of last resort and applicants should check with Insurance Market Place the local Office of Public Assistance (OPA) to determine if they qualify for programs or coverage prior to applying.

BHH's financial assistance program is administered in conjunction with the Federal Poverty Guidelines that are used nationwide and that pertain to medical services provided at Barrett Hospital and Healthcare only. These guidelines incorporate rationale for age, number and ages of dependents and provide definitions of family and net income. The United States Department of Health and Human Services sets the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines and applies annual revisions to account for increases in the Consumer Price Index. BHH increases the federal poverty income levels from 100% to 200% for eligibility purposes.

To apply for assistance and/or to obtain free copies of the policy and application interested parties should contact a personal finance advocate by:

Phone: 406-683-3034

Email: fc@barretthospital.org

Write: Barrett Hospital & HealthCare
Attn: Personal Finance Advocate
600 MT Hwy 91 South
Dillon, MT 59725

In Person: Barrett Hospital & HealthCare
600 MT Hwy 91 South
Dillon MT 59725
Monday – Friday 8a-5p
(Excluding holidays)

Payments

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare offers zero interest payment plans and also contracts with long term billing companies to offer you additional budgeting options (NO credit reporting). Contact a personal finance advocate for details.

Extraordinary Collection Actions (ECA):

Patients that do not contact the personal finance advocate or respond to statements will ultimately be transitioned to an outside agency that may or may not affect credit.

Barrett Hospital & HealthCare will not take any ECA actions without making a reasonable effort to determine at patient's financial assistance eligibility in accordance with limitations outlined in the Credit, Collection and Uncompensated Care Policies and the Financial Assistance Policy (FAP). It will be the responsibility of the Financial Assistance Committee to determine if reasonable efforts were made to access the eligibility of a patient/guarantor for financial assistance.
