LEGAL NOTICE ATTENTION

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) gives notice that the property listed below was seized for federal forfeiture for violation of federal law. Laws and procedures applicable to the forfeiture process can be found at 19 U.S.C. Sections 1602 - 1619, 18 U.S.C. Section 983, and 28 C.F.R. Parts 8 and 9.

To File a Petition for Remission or Mitigation: The government may consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardons all or part of the property from the forfeiture. You may file both a claim and a Petition for Remission or Mitigation (Petition). If you file only a petition and no one else files a claim, your petition will be decided by the seizing agency and will not be heard in U.S. District Court. The petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation, include any facts you believe justify the return of the property, and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 – 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). The <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingPetition.htm> website provides access to a standard petition form that may be mailed and the link to file a petition online. If you cannot find the desired assets online, you must file your petition in writing. This website also provides information on the agency filing address to use when mailing as well as answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs) about filing a petition.

To File a Claim: You may contest the forfeiture of the property listed below in U.S. District Court by filing a claim not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice of seizure, unless you received a written notice via personal letter in which case the deadline set forth in the letter shall apply. A claim must describe the seized property, state your ownership or other interest in the property, and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(a)(2)(C) and 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. A claim need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(a)(2)(D). Claims must be sent to the FBI pursuant to the instructions shown in this notice. The <https://www.forfeiture.gov/FilingClaim.htm> website provides access to a standard claim form that may be mailed and the link to file a claim online. If you cannot find the desired assets online, you must file your claim in writing. This website also provides information on the agency filing address to use when mailing as well as answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs) about filing a claim.

To Request Release of Property Based on Hardship: Upon the filing of a proper claim, a claimant may request release of the seized property during pendency of forfeiture proceedings due to hardship if the claimant is able to meet specific conditions. See 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f). The hardship request cannot be filed online and must be in writing. The claimant must establish the following: claimant has a possessory interest in the property, claimant has sufficient ties to the community to assure that the property will be available at the time of trial, and the government's continued possession will cause a substantial hardship to the claimant. A complete list of the hardship provisions can be reviewed at 18 U.S.C. Section 983(f) and 28 C.F.R. Section 8.15. Some assets are not eligible for hardship release.

Submit all documents to the nearest FBI Field Office, Attention: Forfeiture Paralegal Specialist. FBI locations and telephone numbers can be found at www.fbi.gov. When submitting documentation, please reference the Asset ID Number.

Legal notices regarding abandoned or unclaimed property in the custody of the FBI can be found at www.fbi.gov/legalnotices.
