

Frequently Asked Questions

Who can use the Legal Services program?

This service is offered as a benefit to you, your household members, and dependents.

Is there a charge for legal consultation?

The consultation is offered at no charge. If it is determined that you need additional services from an attorney beyond the initial free consultation, the continued services will be offered at discounted rates. It is recommended that you get a written statement for the cost of an office consultation or services in advance.

Is the service confidential?

Yes. All communications regarding legal concerns are confidential, except where disclosure is required by law.

Are there any restrictions?

Yes. The Legal Services program does not provide advice on issues regarding the EAP, its employees, or other providers or attorneys associated with the program, or on matters relating to your job. The Legal Services Program does not provide advice on any matter that is frivolous, harassing, or otherwise a violation of ethical rules. Also, legal referrals provided are not endorsements or recommendations of any specific attorney or law firm. The responsibility for selecting and employing an attorney lies solely with you.
